

| | Structure |
|----------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| What is it? | The Moody Dhoo - mythical creature |
| What it looks like - description | A big black dog with rough curly hair |
| Where is it found - habitat | Peel Castle - Isle of Man Can be found in the dark passage by the guard room, near the great entrance. |
| What is it best known for - key aspect or concern | Renowned for just appearing and disappearing every night, out of nowhere. Lying quietly in front of the fire until the break of the new day Scaring the man but we don't know what he did. |
| Final issue - important or amazing fact / point. | The man never spoke again and died after 3 days The Moody Dhoo was never seen again |