

Observational Drawing

- OBSERVATIONAL DRAWING is the act of drawing from real life.
- The goal of observational drawing is a realistic representation of the 3D world on the 2D surface you are working on. Observational drawings can be done anywhere that you can find something that you are inspired to recreate.

